JUEMUN Fosters Global Citizenship

Young people yearn to be connected with people throughout the world in ways that enhance the quality of their lives. More than ever before, we are all aware that our lives are shared, but tragically, not always in ways that are just. As awareness of the issues that connect and enrich, divide and threaten our world grows ever more sophisticated, we need JUEMUN to allow university students to shine the light of their natural compassion, and to apply their commonsense on old and absurd problems.

Today's revolution in our means of communication can spur change for good by enhancing the role of the individual in building a consensus for peace and justice everywhere. At the same time, the interconnectedness of our world may amplify the dangers of miscommunication and the impact of maliciousness. We may be at a pivotal moment in global communication. It is characterized by a potential to push the peoples of the world apart, and a counterbalancing growing sense that we are all a part of a Global Community. JUEMUN is committed to nurturing a sense of truly global citizenship.

JUEMUN is an important member of the numerous and diverse global communities that have come together to try to make the world a just place for more people. JUEMUN and other international youth conferences play considerable, often underestimated roles, in encouraging students to find ways they can usefully contribute to the global community. Friendships formed among conference colleagues, destined to last a lifetime, will serve the interests of peace.

JUEMUN 2019 recognizes that Goal 8 “Decent Work and Economic Growth” is one of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals approved by the UN in 2015 that affects people of all ages, in all locations. Goal 8, is dedicated to achieving sustainable development.

JUEMUN 2019 Organizing Committee

Lori Zenuk-Nishide (Kobe City University of Foreign Studies)
Donna Tatsuki (Kobe City University of Foreign Studies)
Michael Hollenback (Kobe City University of Foreign Studies)
Dear JUEMUN 2019 Participants and Faculty Advisors,

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to Kobe.

In today’s unpredictable climate in world politics, studying international issues and exchanging views with people who have different backgrounds is a valuable experience to the young people. I highly appreciate JUEMUN from this point of view as an ideal opportunity for young people to deepen their perception of international political issues.

I have heard that the topic of JUEMUN 2019 “Promoting Jobs and Protecting People” was chosen to commemorate the centennial anniversary of the ILO.

In our current master plan, the City of Kobe is promoting policies, which attract more young people to Kobe as their future destination to study, work and live.

Therefore, I think it is the right time and place for holding an international exchange event such as JUEMUN in Kobe because creating jobs and fostering good work environments are not only the crucial point for our project as a city but the common interest of the global society.

I sincerely hope that the experience and knowledge you are going to gain through this event will be useful toward your future endeavors.

Lastly, I cordially wish for the success of the event and all the JUEMUN attendees to have a fruitful time in Kobe.

Kizo Hisamoto
Mayor of Kobe
Welcome Message
from the President of Kobe City University of Foreign Studies

Always aim for high ideals

I would like to extend my greetings to all the JUEMUN 2019 participants. Welcome to Kobe City University of Foreign Studies.

In a chaotic modern society, it is difficult to change the situation with just ideals or even through realistic measures. Having ideals based on reality will change the world. The power of negotiations will bridge the reality and the ideal. The United Nations is a place for negotiations to realize such high ideals.

In other words, obtaining a wide knowledge and strong bargaining power is the first step to create an ideal world. It also matches Kobe City University of Foreign Studies' motto,

\[ \textit{ad altiora semper} \]

\[ \textit{always aim for high ideals} \]

I hope that you all join JUEMUN in order to approach such goals.

Sincerely,

Akihiro Sashi

President, Kobe City University of Foreign Studies
In Memoriam: Craig Smith

It is with great sadness that we report the passing of JUEMUN’s co-founder, a passionate visionary educator for peace and human rights, and community builder, Professor Craig Allen Smith of Kyoto University of Foreign Studies. Professor Craig Smith truly empowered youth through the United Nations. He said that “JUEMUN, gives Japanese and international university students a platform to “share the bright light of their intelligence, of their feelings, and their ideas to make the world a better place on the global stage”.

Professor Smith’s final message to all of you was,

You are the global citizenship generation because in your legacy, you have been present for the MDGs and you have seen the vision for the SDGs. Implement the vision you have of creating societies, in which people of all kinds of differences can actually talk to each other, can actually build stronger communities together. If you can do that, you will truly make contributions to the way we live peacefully in this world.

Rest in peace Professor Smith, this vision is now our responsibility. You are a part of us and will never be forgotten.

MUN and JUEMUN

What is Model United Nations (MUN)?

MUN is an academic simulation of the United Nations that includes debate, public speaking and international affairs. At a Model United Nations conference, participants, who are referred to as delegates, are given the opportunity to represent different countries on different committees.

Delegates participate in discussions on issues ranging from world conflict and international security, to human rights and education. Through these exchanges, delegates are able to develop and refine skills such as collaboration, decision-making, critical thinking and verbal communication.

During a conference, delegates work together to create practical and innovative solutions to the issue they are discussing. These solutions are then incorporated into a plan called a working paper and then introduced to all of the delegates in the form of a draft resolution. The draft resolutions are then amended and voted on in hopes of passing and becoming a resolution. While most MUN conferences only last a few days, delegates often leave more interested in international affairs, become more aware, more educated and more thoughtful citizens of the future.

About JUEMUN

Japan University English Model United Nations, commonly referred to as JUEMUN, is an annual faculty-organized conference held in the Kansai region of Japan. Since its inception in 2010, JUEMUN has grown into Japan’s premier English MUN experience for university students around the world. JUEMUN participants come from places near and far bringing an amazing array of backgrounds and perspectives, resulting in an exciting, engaging, and unforgettable simulation. Our conference will bring together over 200 participants from scores of universities and many countries around the world.

JUEMUN was founded by Canadians, Professor Craig Smith and Associate Professor Lori Zenuk-Nishide with the leadership and support of Professor Donna Tatsuki, who have combined their MUN experience of over 50 years to offer a unique and innovative learning opportunity for university students around the world. The annual JUEMUN conference is hosted on a rotating basis between Kyoto University of Foreign Studies and Kobe City University of Foreign Studies.

Each JUEMUN agenda is chosen after careful extensive deliberation and discussion by the founders. These chosen agendas are always issues of great importance to the world that need to be addressed with comprehensive and innovative solutions. At each JUEMUN conference, participants experience cooperative hands-on learning, allowing them to confront an issue in English from the perspective of their assigned country.

Through these experiences in the conference committee sessions, participants develop an appreciation of differing viewpoints, the frustration of negotiation, the rewards of cooperation, and a broader view of the human side of international relations and diplomacy. The dedicated conference support and guidance from JUEMUN faculty advisors as well as the knowledge and experience shared by the invited speakers, truly make each JUEMUN conference a professional and educational experience of the highest quality.
Kobe City University of Foreign Studies cultivates the “global citizen” who can participate in various disciplines, including business, diplomacy and education by utilizing the advanced foreign languages skills which are needed to effectively function in a modern, international society. Additionally, our students are educated with the skills and knowledge to make capable, competent, and flexible decisions. Founded in 1946, KCUFS offers undergraduate, graduate and doctoral degrees. There are 4 major language departments: English, Chinese, Russian and Spanish Studies as well as International Relations. The undergraduate programs offer a choice of the following courses: Linguistics, Literature, General Culture, Social Sciences, International Communication and Education. KCUFS is one of only two public foreign studies universities in Japan and has a current enrollment of over 2,000. KCUFS is the only municipal level university in Japan to offer government endorsed Japanese as a Second Language Programs to foreign students. KCUFS has teacher and accredited student exchange programs. On average, 300 students study abroad every year, of which 120 are accepted in accredited programs at leading educational organizations worldwide.

TABLING A DRAFT RESOLUTION

1. By 3:00 pm on Saturday, the working papers need be checked by a faculty advisor for grammar and format before being submitted to the Bureau.
2. The tabled draft resolutions will be accessible on the JUEMUN Hub.

MAKING AMENDMENTS TO DRs

1. In regional blocs, the representative(s) from each committee will explain their tabled draft resolution (DR) line by line to the other members of their regional bloc. Amendments can be proposed after each operative clause is read. For each amendment, predetermined bloc representatives (Scribes) will fill out an amendment form for each amendment and submit the right side of the amendment form to the Chairs. (By the end of day 2)
2. All members of each committee will come to the front of the meeting room in informal debate to read the operative section of their tabled DR line by line. The Chair will ask for amendments after each operative clause is read. The predetermined bloc representatives (Scribes) will introduce amendments on behalf of their regional bloc. The Chair will moderate the debate and the Secretary will show the amendments to each tabled draft resolution on the screen. All delegates will make note of the introduced amendments on their copy of the DRs with a coloured pencil or pen.
3. Copies of the amendment forms for each committee’s DR will be made by the Assistant Chairs. These copies will be delivered to each committee for their reference.
4. Delegates will then go into Informal Informal Debate in Committee Groups to discuss the proposed amendments to their tabled DRs. Committee members will decide whether the proposed amendments are friendly or unfriendly. If friendly, the committee will circle friendly on the amendment form and tell the Bureau. If unfriendly, they circle unfriendly, tell the bureau, and try to negotiate a revision in Informal Informal Debate in their Regional Bloc meetings.
5. Delegates will then go into Informal Informal Debate in Regional Bloc groups to discuss the unfriendly amendments and try to negotiate a revision that the regional bloc and committee can agree on.
6. Delegates then go into Informal Informal Debate in their Committees to make final decisions on the revisions and inform the Bureau of the outcome.
7. Committee members once again come up to the front and only read operative clauses that need to be addressed and share what they are willing to agree to. If there are disagreements from any of the delegates, the negotiated revision will be thrown out and the original amendment will be voted on in the voting process.

Global Negotiation Symposium @JUEMUN
A Faculty Development MUN Innovation

The Global Negotiation Symposium provides an opportunity for researchers, negotiation practitioners, and language teachers to share their insights and best practices in order to significantly enrich the pedagogic environment for spoken interaction for both non-native and native speakers of English. Knowledge of and practical familiarization with the pragmatic norms of negotiation within relevant communities of practice is an important aspect of socialization for native speakers and foreign language learners alike.

One outstanding innovation of the Global Negotiation Symposium will be workshop opportunities for participants to observe students negotiating at JUEMUN and learn about a Model United Nations simulation as a community of practice.

One of the most important the 21st century skills is the ability to negotiate constructive resolutions in the face of conflicts of interest. Negotiation is a form of communication that requires more than just language ability. It requires being able to listen to and communicate with others within a milieu of diverse language abilities, academic, professional and cultural backgrounds in an increasingly global society. Negotiation is problem solving where the bringing together of two or more parties with seemingly divergent interests requires creativity and involves the expansion of the solution choice-set to enable a win-win situation.

The Global Negotiation Symposium bridges theory, research and practice of negotiation in order to support teachers with practical skills, language and evaluative frameworks.

When negotiating in English in a multicultural and multilingual environment, Japanese are stereotypically known to adopt roles as observers rather than as active participants because they are relying on a Japanese cultural approach to negotiation. In Japanese education, problem solving and critical/creative thinking have not been valued at the core of learning and innovation. The 21st century calls for educational systems to ensure that their curriculum design and pedagogical practices emphasize and develop competencies that are crucial for successful negotiation. Our common goal is to prepare students to solve complex problems that are associated with living in a technological, competitive, and globally connected world.
